FORT BEND COUNTY'S OUTSTANDING VOLUNTEERS HONORED AT CELEBRATORY BREAKFAST

Fort Bend County's top volunteers were honored at the 2010 County Judge's Volunteer Awards Ceremony with a celebratory breakfast on Thursday, April 29, at Safari Texas Ranch. These five individuals – Dr. Mary Ernestine Butler, Barbara Garaygordobil, Robert Pourciau, Michael Biasini, and KK West – were recognized for their unwavering commitment to the organizations for which they volunteer.

To pay tribute to the contributions made by these generous and giving individuals, Fort Bend County Judge Bob Hebert presented prestigious awards to each honoree in recognition of their accomplishments and the impact they have made on their communities. These selfless volunteers play a significant (and often unheralded) role in making Fort Bend County such an outstanding place to live and raise a family.

Proceeds from the breakfast benefit Volunteer Fort Bend, an organization devoted to matching volunteers with non-profit organizations that need assistance.
